The Stella Walsh Story

Presented by:

Sheldon Anderson, Ph.D.,

Professor of History
Miami University

In 1951, the Helms Sports Foundation named Stella Walsh the “greatest woman athlete” of the first half of the twentieth century. Learn about the Olympic athlete who remains a focal point of debates on sex and gender identity.

Visit the Miami University Archives and Walter Havighurst Special Collections in 321 King Library, open 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.
